THE ART OF PHOTOGRAPHY

Concept and design donated by Travers Collins & Company.

Discover the man who showed us what it's like to be a fighter, to be a family, to be Marilyn, to be human. Discover Ken Heyman.

Please join CEPA Gallery to celebrate the opening of Ken Heyman: Being Human, a 50 year retrospective of images that explore the heights and depths of what being human means.

In collaboration with CEPA Gallery, the Albright-Knox Art Gallery will present Ken Heyman: Pop Portraits, a collection of 24 photographs from Heyman's Pop Art series. This exhibition also includes photographs of artists from the permanent collection.

Mr. Heyman will launch the exhibitions with a lecture on his work on Friday, June 15, at 7:00 pm in the Albright-Knox Art Gallery auditorium. Admission is free. The artist will also attend the opening reception at CEPA Gallery on Saturday, June 16, from 7:00 to 10:00 pm.

Ken Heyman: Being Human is presented with major support from The Baird Foundation and generous gifts from the following: Balbach Family Foundation, Nancy Brock and Scott Goldman, The Buffalo News, Kate and Steve Foley, Linda Gellman/Click Photography, Holly and Jordan Levy, Ron Schreiber, Herb Siegel, and Travers Collins & Company.

All photographs are courtesy of Ken Heyman.

KEN HEYMAN HAS PHOTOGRAPHED THE UNKNOWN, THE FAMOUS, AND THE INFAMOUS FOR MORE THAN 50 YEARS IN MORE THAN 60 COUNTRIES. THROUGH HIS EARLY ANTHROPOLOGICAL WORK WITH MARGARET MEAD, HE DEVELOPED A TALENT FOR CHRONICLING THE ENTIRE SPECTRUM OF HUMAN EMOTION. HE ENCOURAGES US TO IDENTIFY WITH PEOPLE WE SEEMINGLY HAVE NOTHING IN COMMON WITH AND TO RECOGNIZE THAT NO MATTER WHAT OUR DIFFERENCES, WE SHARE MANY SIMILARITIES: THE LOVE OF FAMILY, THE DESIRE FOR FREEDOM, AND A SENSE OF WONDER.
